BLUES BAND TO PERFORM BENEFIT CONCERT FOR WDIY

(Lehigh Valley, PA) The Alexis P. Suter Band will bring its rocking blues and soulful sounds to Allentown Symphony Hall Saturday, July 18 at 8 p.m. in a benefit concert for WDIY 88.1, Lehigh Valley Community Public Radio.

The concert will take place in ASH's Rodale Room. Tickets are $30 for the concert or $70 for preferred seating and a special pre-concert meet-and-greet, with hors d'oeuvres and drinks.

Considered to be "rising stars" on the roots, blues and soul scene, the band is fronted by the powerful bass/baritone voice of Alexis P. Suter, described as being "seasoned with raw emotion and a wide streak of attitude." Born in Brooklyn, NY, Suter became a staple of underground "garage music" in the early 1990's and has won acclaim from music greats like B.B. King and Levon Helm. She and her band tour nationally and internationally and she regularly performs live at the "Levon Helm Midnight Ramble Sessions" in Woodstock, NY.

Suter is backed by a six-piece band including The Bennett Brothers, guitar and bass; Ray Grappone, percussionist; Benny Harrison, keyboards; and Vicki Bell and Linda Pino, vocalists. Their latest CD, "Just Another Fool," is on Hipbone Records.

Tickets for the performance are available by calling 610-694-8100 X3, or by email, info@wdiy.org.
